

NMOS ANNUAL MEETING

April 29-30, 2023

Washington Ranch

Carlsbad, NM

The Meeting will be held at the Washington Ranch, which is adjacent to Rattlesnake Springs, Carlsbad Caverns National Park. The address is 18 Rattlesnake Springs Road, Carlsbad, NM 88220. Their website is campwashingtonranch.org and their phone number is 575-785-2228.

Lodging is on your own. The ranch has several options – please visit their website for more information. There are also hotels in Whites City and Carlsbad, the closest towns.

REGISTRATION FEES (payable to NMOS) ARE DUE BY APRIL 7! All registration will be in advance; there will be no registration at the door due to meeting logistics. This year we will have Saturday morning field trips, Saturday afternoon science session, and Sunday field trips. The registration fee includes access to field trips, sack lunch for Sunday and dinner Saturday evening. You may also bird on your own.

We have a new t-shirt with a Yellow-billed Cuckoo image on the front and will have an assortment of other t-shirts from previous meetings for purchase. We will also have a small number of the newly revised New Mexico Bird Finding Guide (4th Edition) available for purchase at the reduced price of $30.
