

New Mexico Ornithological Society 62nd Annual Meeting

17 May 2025

The New Mexico Ornithological Society (NMOS) will hold its 62nd Annual Meeting on Saturday, May 17 in Silver City. This in-person meeting is scheduled to include a general science session, a business meeting, scientific presentations, and field outings on the mornings of Saturday, May 17 and Sunday, May 18.

CALL FOR PAPERS – NMOS GENERAL SCIENCE SESSION

Submission deadline extended to May 12

NMOS is now accepting abstracts for oral presentations at the 62nd annual meeting. All presenters must also be registered to attend the annual meeting (see <https://www.nmbirds.org/annual-meeting/>).

Presentation topics may include technical reports, original research, and topics addressing more general science-related questions of interest to the New Mexico ornithological community. Presentations for the NMOS General Science Session will be allotted 15 minutes, with an additional five-minute period for questions.

Abstracts for the General Science Session should be submitted in the format below.

- TITLE (in all capital letters) containing no more than 20 words
- Names and addresses of author(s) in the following form:
Piper, S. S. and R. Finch
Department of Ornithology
University of Central New Mexico
Birdsville, NM 87654
- Body of the abstract as one single-spaced paragraph, not to exceed 250 words
- E-mail address and/or phone number of presenting author

Please submit the entire text of your abstract in the body of the email, and NOT as an attachment. This will prevent any problems with incompatible word processing formats. The deadline for the submission of abstracts is May 12, 2025. Please email your abstract to Chuck Hayes at clhayes@unm.edu AND to Matt Baumann at mbaumann22@gmail.com.

All abstract submissions will be acknowledged within a week of receipt. If no acknowledgement is received, it is the submitter's responsibility to follow up and ensure their abstract was successfully transmitted. The abstracts for the NMOS General Science Session will be distributed at the meeting and will be published in the NMOS Bulletin.
